All Music and Lyrics written by Jason Edward Mapes (co) 2019 All Right Reserved

The Devil Plays Guitar

V1

She hides her inner fire She says a prayer to keep the flames at bay

Burning with desire She hopes the rain will wash the sin away

B1:

She sits alone in the back of that smoke filled bar Every note tells her she's gonna go way too far

The Devil Plays Guitar

V2

She knows she can't explain it How the music makes her feel so good

She knows she can't restrain it And would she if she could?

By day she's high class like fine wine and caviar At night it's cheap smokes and rocking in the back of his car

The Devil Plays Guitar

Didn't Want To

(V1)

Did you think my life would come undone? And without you there would be no one?

(B1)

In life sometimes your doors will close - That's just the way it goes

It's alright. It's OK I live to love another day

(Chorus)

Didn't want to Live without you But that's just what I'm about to

Didn't hafta lie Hafta make me cry Guess it's time for me to say bye bye

Didn't have to be So Unkind to me I'm out. No doubt. I can finally See

Didn't want to Live without you But that's just what I'm about to do

(V2)

Breakin' up didn't break me down Brushed the dust. Straightened up my crown

(B2)

Heartless is the path you chose - Where you stop nobody knows

It's alright. It's OK. I live to love again someday

(Repeat Chorus)

(Bridge)

Never knew who you were Never saw thru your disguise

Now I realize what I'm worth I'm worth more than you lies

(Solo) (Chorus out)

Gonna Make You Mine

Got no reason to be wasting time You give that look that says I'm gonna make you mine

To take it slow Just ain't on my mind You got me goin' and I'm gonna make you mine

Yes I'm gonna make you mine

V1

Pretty lady you just blew my world away To be your lover well there's no price I won't pay

BR

Nothing ventured. Nothing gained.

Chorus

Got no reason to be wasting time You give that look that says I'm gonna make you mine

To take it slow Just ain't on my mind You got me goin' and I'm gonna make you mine

V2

Take a chance girl Let me show you paradise You're such a good girl Lemme be your only vice

Repeat Bridge and Chorus

PRE-SOLO

Nothing ventured. Nothing Gained. It could be fate, So Whaddayasay?

V3

Hey hey Baby. Will you tell me Yes or No Take my hand Girl, Hold on tight 'cause here we go

Repeat Bridge and Chorus

Same Old Same

You lie & cheat; Stories change like the seasons

You point the blame Devoid of shame with no rhyme or reason

Throwing trash on our past like an act of treason

That's the name of your game

(V2)

Fake a smile all the while you're a fabrication

Double faced without a trace of any obligation

Your ego trip's off on a permanent vacation

That's the claim to your fame

(Bridge/Chorus)

How many times did you lie when you looked in my eye?

You deflect the blame. With lies on my name. In the end

You're the Same Ol' Same

(V3)

You're always right, you're never wrong. That's your way of thinking.

Selling sheep the poisonous kool-aid they're drinking

Your ship of friends hit the ice and now they're sinking

That's the way that you play

(V4)

Your web of lies is twice your size but still you're spinning

Your solo game it's kinda lame but you think you're winning

You play the saint but you aint; you excel at sinning

That's the way that you're made

(Repeat Bridge/Chorus)

Breakdown/Solo

(V5)

Karma's back for the attack and now you're reeling

No sympathy you'll get from me for the way You're feeling

The bed you made is yours to lay and now I'm healing

That's the end of this game

Repeat Bridge/Chorus

Dueling Solos Out

She's Hot (but not as hot as she thinks)

V1:

Attention starved baby dying to be heard everything she says borders on the absurd

She's got a friend named Chris – he doesn't exist Gets an ego boost from a fake emoji kiss

B1:

She's got a condescending view from her elevated shoes She's got some fake stories to explain her tattoos

V2:

Hey, Hey Lady What's it all about? So self-involved that it makes ya wanna shout

Fairy-tales about your life – Dishonesty is rife. Forgot that little story about being someone's wife

B2:

She's got a condescending view she thinks her shit don't stink She's Hot – but not as hot as she thinks

CH1:

She's Hot – not as hot as she thinks It Gets worse – when she has a few drinks

It's knock-down, drag-out ego galore You've never seen such a big attention whore

with a condescending view she thinks her shit don't stink She's hot....but not as hot as she thinks

V3:

Solo Reality Show Keepin-up with Ho Again The Same Ol Same Ol - 6 thinking she's a 10

A fine line is what you find 'tween her & reality A white trash train crash is surely her destiny

Repeat Bridge 2 and Chorus Out

Sorry you feel that way

Sorry you feel that way

Well now you're ignoring me But I said it with sincerity And you hate it either way

It's not an apology It's just agree to disagree But you hate it when I say

Sorry you feel that way

Bridge:

It's not about who's wrong or right It's just gone on too long & I'm too tired to fight

But you hate it when I say Sorry you feel that way
